

IN COURT
SPECIFIC DIVISION IF APPLICABLE

BETWEEN:

APPELLANT

Appellant

and

RESPONDENT

Respondent

SKELETON ARGUMENT OF THE POSITION (junior appellant, lead respondent etc)

1. A sentence outlining what you're looking for and the basis for your claim (effectively your ground of appeal)

SUBMISSIONS

2. First main submission (NB - don't write out your whole argument, just summarise it)
 - i. Any cases that support your first submission (write out the full citation following the name i.e. Jones v Bloggs [1987] 4 All ER 22)
3. Second main submission
 - i. Any relevant cases for your second submission
 - ii. If you have a second case for a submission that's fine – just write out the full citation!
4. Third main submission (if you have one, but two will be fine)
 - i. Cases relevant to third submission if applicable

Your name
Make up a name Chambers
Date of the moot (28th October 2006)